The great value of the medicinal properties of the Coca leaf are now well known, and of morbid phenomena have their origin in refor-

mentation, and hence, under the influence of anodynes and sedatives, the symptoms disappear.

Concussions from the narcotics which have heretofore been employed, such as opium, in its action, are comparatively transient, and is followed with little, if any, secondary depression.

It is also a most efficacious remedy for irritation, and hence, in the removal of any kind of nervous affection.

JOURNAL OF THE

LONDON, 10th September.
Miss White O'Connell, widow of Captain F. L. O'Connell, who was killed in a collision between a mail coach and a train at Loughrea, Co. Galway, on Wednesday evening, gave a most harrowing account of what had taken place. She said that when the mail coach was hit, the horses started, and the passengers, many of whom were children, scattered in all directions. Some were killed, and others were severely injured. The driver of the mail coach was also killed.

PAUL'S TRAGEDY AT PLUMMER.

LONDON, 10th September.

Plummer is now the scene of a sensational murder case, the developments of which are being followed by the public with much interest.

The story is that of young Walter Lyon, who last Friday night, after a long day's work, was found hanging from a branch of a tree in a garden, his hands bound behind his back, and his wrists cut through. He was dead.

He had been drinking heavily.
